From notes and examination of the before mentioned Bible made during an interview with Mr. Isaac F. Baldwin, on January 18,

1903, and from other sources I continue the account of this branch of the family, - substantially in the language of Mr. Baldwin, as follows :

" James 2nd (JAMES, TEXAS, etc) Baldwin and his wife Susan (Vail) were buried in the Baptist cemetery two miles south of Patterson village, but my maternal grand-parents, Isaac and Deborah (Lobdell) Field, were buried in the Drew cemetery, South East. Grandfather James 2nd Baldwin lived for some time on Starr Ridge, - on the farm owned at one time by Jim Kelley, Ed. Brady, and others. He traded this farm for one in the Town of Kent, belonging to Moses Fowler. He lived in the Town of Carmel, where his children were born, my father, Daniel, being the eldest. Father was in the War of 1812 and used to tell me that at one time he was stationed at the " Barracks " in New York. Father was a deacon in the Baptist church for more than fifty years. I recollect Grandfather James, 2nd, Baldwin distinctly. I was about six or perhaps eight years of age when he died. Grandmother Susan (Vail) Baldwin requested to be buried as close to her husband as possible, - ' just as close as possible and not hit the coffin '. She was a large-sized woman and out-lived her husband. Both were members of the Baptist church and were buried at Patterson Four Corners. I think that Grandmother Baldwin had a brother James Vail, or Voale, both meaning the same. I used to hear Father talk about ' Farns, or Pierce, or Perc '(Percival) Baldwin, and also about Uncle Joshua Gregory. I also recall talk about ' Uncle Tim. Carver, who had a son Barny or Barnabas, who was a cattle drover. He was a cousin to my father. Barny Carver had a son who was at one time Deputy Sheriff of Putnam county. Barny had another son, also. Grandfather James, 2nd, Baldwin's brother Ephraim and his wife joined the ' Shaking Quakers ' and Grandfather used to visit them at New Lebanon. Ephraim's wife was a short woman, but she used to dance. They had a son who was a preacher, and I used to hear him preach at the Baptist church at ' Four Corners '. They had another son, Harry, who drove a wagon about the country selling wares. This was about the year 1835. Father's second wife, Nancy (Wood) Baldwin has the old Family Bible. She has a nephew, George Warden by name, living in Connecticut. She had also 4 nephews, Egbert Fowler and Warren ? Lewis, living in New York City. My wife's parents were Amos and Abby (Converse) Neckerson. Father's brothers and sisters were:

" b. FANNY, born 1783, bap. in 1808 with her brother Daniel, by Nathan Cole, and was burned to death in her home in 1855, in her 73rd year; married Peter Dykeman and had issue (Dykeman):
